

The Conference...

Olds High is jacked up about leadership and ASLC 2015! The conference will include a variety of inspirational, educational and motivational speakers and activities.

Sunday's breakout session will focus on the elements of well-being. (SPIES: Social, Physical, Intellectual, Emotional, Spiritual).

ASLC 2015 will be showcasing Stu Sanders as a featured speaker. Stu is known for his enthusiasm amongst youth and his humor and passion while delivering motivational workshops.

Fair trade goods, post-secondary information, potential career opportunities and conference swag will be displayed at our trade show.

ASLC will be bursting with sensational events, speakers and activities!

Keynote Speakers...

David Garibaldi is a performance painter who delivers inspirational messages while using his hands and body to paint magnificent graffiti art pieces. He calls his act "Rhythm and Hue" and uses his talent to inspire others to use their passion to benefit and further inspire others.

Tenille is a country music singer/songwriter from Grand Prairie, Alberta. She has toured to schools around Canada and given a presentation that sparks interest, ignites change and fuels passion.

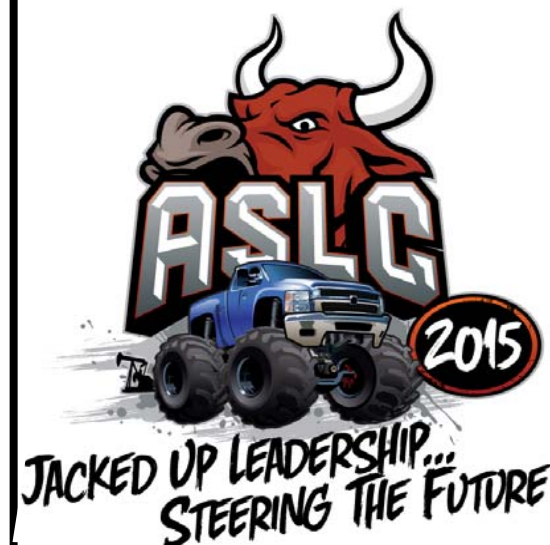

She started a tour called "Play it Forward" that has proved to be a huge success.

Cara Filler is a youth motivational speaker and prevention specialist. She empowers people to make every day choices count. Cara has an incredible ability to relate to an audience and leave people inspired to CARE MORE, SPEAK UP, STAND OUT!

Mark Scharenbroich uses the "Nice Bike" principle to help individuals to become more engaged and passionate about serving others using three simple steps: acknowledging, honoring, connecting.
